

HISTORIC AMERICAN ENGINEERING RECORD

Master Photo List

CT-4

Indian Leap Pedestrian Bridge

Spanning the Yantic River near Yantic Street Number One on the North to Indian Leap Recreational Area on the South.

New London County

Norwich

Connecticut

Photographs taken 5/3/79 by Steven Zane.

HAER CT-4-1	3/4 frontal view looking east.
CT-4-2	3/4 frontal view looking west.
CT-4-3	Barrel shot of bridge looking west showing decking, guard rails, and trusses.
CT-4-4	Barrel shot of bridge looking east showing decking, guard rails, and trusses.
CT-4-5	Strut detail looking east.
CT-4-6	Detail view of strut and upper chord connection looking northeast.
CT-4-7	Side elevation detail showing connection of upper chord and inclined end post.
CT-4-8	Strut and guard rail detail, northwest corner.
CT-4-9	Date plate, southeast corner, reading: "Built by Berlin Construction Co, Berlin Conn. 1904."
CT-4-10	View of deck underside and pier looking west.
CT-4-11	Detail, metal cleats in stone wall to south of bridge near falls.

HAER
CONN.
6-NOR.
18-

CT-4-12

Powerhouse and mill race, north of bridge.

CT-4-13

Farm house northwest of bridge.

CT-4-14

General view looking north, showing pedestrian bridge in foreground and railroad bridge beyond.
